

Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game
Give an example of how parents have a voice at your school.	Describe how you encourage parents to be full partners with the school.	Tell why your staff does or doesn't call families to introduce themselves.	Tell how staff decide who attends PTA/PTO meetings at your school.
Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game
Tell how your school involves the community.	Give an example of a tailored message to reach a specific group of parents.	Describe how you ask parents if they have the tools they need to help their children.	Tell if your school has a parent information bulletin board.
Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game
Tell how cultural differences are addressed at your school.	Describe a time parents influenced change at your school.	Describe how you build parents' skills to improve student learning.	Share how your school reaches out to parents typically not involved in school activities.
Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game
Tell how parents are notified of opportunities to affect learning.	Indicate how parents know whom to ask about understanding test results.	Tell what communications are translated for parents who don't speak English.	Give an example of how parents' opinions are asked for when making a decision at your school.
Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game	Achieve the Plan board game
Say if you have a parent on your site council/advisory board.	List one way parents receive two-way communication.	Give an example of how parents can volunteer from home.	Describe how you show parents their involvement is important.	